WOE TO HIM WHO LICENSES.

Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage, in an address to saloon-keepers, closes with this strong paragraph: "I tell you plainly that one day you will meet your customers when there will be no counter between you. When your work is done on earth, and you enter the reward of all your business, all the souls of men whom you have destroyed will crowd around you and pour their bitterness into your cup. They will show you their wounds and say, 'You made them;' and point to their unquenchable thirst and say, 'You kindled it;' and rattle their chains and say, 'You forged them.' Then their frenzied groans will smite your ear; and with the hands out of which you once picked the six-pences and the dimes, they will push you off the verge of great precipices; while rolling up from beneath, and breaking among the crags of death, will thunder, 'Woe unto him that giveth his neighbor drink!'"

C. J. Smith, one of the leading merchants of Weir Park, and Alfred Ayer, a prominent citizen of Lake Weir, made us a pleasant call this morning.

The office of the Montezuma hotel is being thoroughly overhauled and will present a very handsome appearance when completed.

The flag drill to be given next Friday night at the opera house will be a new diversion. All home talent and one of the most enjoyable occasions you ever saw. Don't miss it. Tickets for sale at Israel's book store.
